

Belvedere Tiburon Library

Donations of Books, CDs, and DVDs to the Belvedere Tiburon Library and to Corner Books

Thank you for considering a donation of your gently used books, DVDs, CDs, and books on CD!

The Library has very limited storage. Please review our donation guidelines.

Donations of up to two bags or boxes of materials per week may be brought to Corner Books or to the Library during open hours. Please have your donations stacked securely in a bag or box that you do not need back.

Books

- Condition should be very good to like new. The Library and Corner Books are unable to accept books and items that are moldy, musty, damp, warped, or badly spotted.
- How to spot a book in very good or better condition: Spine intact, no highlighting, cover/jacket clean with few marks or wrinkles or discoloration, minimal dog-earing of pages, cover corners not badly bent, pages not yellowed.
- Types of books that are most desirable: fiction and mystery hardcovers (recently published 2011-2016), paperback fiction and mystery, cookbooks, recently published travel books, children's books, gardening, history, art books, home décor, antiquarian and collectible books.
- Types of books we are unable to sell, even if they are in great condition: Out-of-date computer, medical, weight loss, and business books (typically those published before 2014); Reader's Digest Condensed Books; bound catalogs and brochures.

CDs, DVDs, and Books on CD

- Cases should be intact.
- Discs should be in good condition, with few scratches.
- Multi-disc sets should be complete.
- We are unable to accept magazines (including National Geographic), videocassettes, or cassette tapes.

The Library does not pick up donations.

Call 415.789.2665, ext. 2222, to arrange a time to drop off your donation at the Library's storage shed if you need help. All donations are tax deductible. For more questions, call Corner Books at 415.789.5000.
