Calling All Artists

Are you interested in showing your art at our Library? Every year the Library's Art Committee holds an Art Jury to select exhibits, each of which will be displayed in the Founders Room for approximately four weeks between January and December of 2017. This year's jury will be held in October.

Submission Information and Schedule:

Wednesday, October 12, 1pm-6pm
Thursday, October 13, 10am-3pm

- Include one framed two-dimensional piece of art, a website or photos of additional works, and your resume, history and/or artist statement.
- Artist Notification: A decision will be emailed Friday afternoon, October 14.
- Mandatory Art Retrieval:
Saturday, October 15, 10am – 1pm

Guidelines:

- Art needs to be two dimensional and able to be hung.
- Selected works should be available for sale. The Library retains 25% of the sales proceeds.
- Guest artists must be willing to actively market their show to their networks and provide food for the opening reception in lieu of an entry fee. The Art Committee will provide hosts, wine and sparkling water.

For more information: Contact Art Committee members Diane Green, eboston@comcast.net or Renee Shurstad, renshur@gmail.com. Website: beltiblibrary.org/event/art-jury

Thank You! Because of your support, the Library is thriving. Here are four key things we strive to offer our growing community:

Tradition: The Library has been, and always will be, a warm, welcoming place where people can drop in, find a great book and a quiet place to read or study.

Innovation: At the same time, the Library provides the latest technology, a cornucopia of online resources, inventive programs, and classes to help us all become 21st century learners.

Abundance: A wealth of choices awaits visitors to the Library, whether in person or online, and the list of options grows every day. And with Corner Books, the Library's all-volunteer-run book shop, new adventures can be had at bargain prices!

A Hub: As the Library evolves to meet the changing needs of the community while still maintaining its core purposes, it becomes more and more of a gathering place. If you haven't been in lately, come see for yourself - you will be amazed.

Our mission is to support the Belvedere Tiburon Library through fundraising projects, private philanthropy, and advocacy.

Search Me!

The Library has a great new catalog. A Library's catalog is core to the functioning of any library in order to find exactly what one is looking for in the quickest and easiest way possible. Our New Catalog, powered by BiblioCommons software, is now the main catalog you can use when looking for library items, both physical and digital.

Some of the New Catalog features are:

- Improved searching
- Easy one-click requests sent to the location of your choice
- Optional reading history with sorting abilities
- Mobile device friendly
- Optional sharing of ratings, lists, and comments

The first time you use it you will register with a user name using the same library card number and PIN as before. Staff members are happy to help with any transition issues you may have. And fear not, the Classic Catalog remains for those not wishing to make the change.

Author, Author!

New to Our Local Authors Collection:

Operation Crossroads - Lest We Forget!: an Eyewitness Account, Bikini Atomic Bomb Tests 1946 (2016), by William L. McGee of Tiburon. A story of his participation in one of the most important events of the twentieth century, from the plan, build-up, rehearsals and tests, to the all-important lessons learned about the devastating effects of radiation on man, animal, and ships.

Shadow Time: Living with and Surviving My Husband's Dementia (2013), by Suzanne Himmelwright of Belvedere. A portrait of the sad fate of her marriage and her fortitude to live through, and learn from, the most overwhelming of circumstances.

A New Leash on Life (2016), by Kara Hamilton of Tiburon. A children's picture book about the arrival of a new baby and how the family dog ingeniously teaches the baby how to properly behave around him so they may coexist peacefully. He not only realizes that there's enough love for everyone in the family, he also gains a new best friend.

Learning With Lynda

You may already know that your library card gives you access to Lynda.com, the industry-leading provider of online training courses. But Lynda.com recently also added a useful new feature: Learning Paths. Learning Paths are collections of training courses that focus on career tracks in areas such as animation, business, and digital production and design. Examples of Learning Paths include Become a Bookkeeper, Become a Craft Business Owner, and Become a Documentary Filmmaker. This is a great resource especially if you are considering recareering.

To access Lynda.com, go to the library's website and choose Go Digital | Learn Technology. You will need your library card barcode number and PIN.
