Green WEEK

May 8 - May 13

A WEEK OF EVENTS

MONDAY MAY 8

10:30AM: Get Ready 94920

Preparedness trainings to help you and your family prepare for any type of disaster.

5:30PM: Empowered: Energy Heroes Mini Series Screening
Screening and community discussion about plotting our path to net zero carbon emissions.

TUESDAY MAY 9

3PM: Green Book Group

Join our library book group for a discussion of fiction and nonfiction literature with a focus on Planet Earth.

5:30PM: The Transforming of California's Ecography
Obi Kaufmann returns to the Belvedere Tiburon Library with a presentation entitled "The Transforming of California's Ecography".

WEDNESDAY MAY 10

2:30PM: Discover Wildcare: Pre K Session

3:30PM: Discover Wildcare: Grade Level Session

Going Green - Let our local wildlife teach you simple ways to help preserve our planet.

THURSDAY MAY 11

6PM: The Fascinating Return of Whales, Porpoises and Dolphins to SF Bay

Gray whales are in trouble. And when one washes ashore, our experts often go into the field to investigate why.

FRIDAY MAY 12

2PM: Explore Wind Power

Celebrate the Bay Area's windy, foggy temperament by building and testing your flying paper contraptions!

SATURDAY MAY 13

11AM: Zero Waste Chef with Anne Marie Bonneau
Zero-Waste living step by step, with loads of recipes to replace your favorite packaged foods, tips on zero waste and plastic-free living. Plus, the occasional rant.

Join us for a week of events and activities where we celebrate our natural environment and learn different ways we can protect it.
